Council Rejects Bookstore Report; Selects Chairmen

• THE STUDENT COUNCIL returned the bookstore survey report to its committee and chose co-chairmen for this year's Career Conference last Wednesday evening.

Carl Scrivener, chairman of the survey committee, submitted a report of his committee's findings on the University bookstore.

During discussion for acceptance of the report, however, council advocate, Tim Mead, a member of the survey committee, gave the Council information which sent the report back to the committee as incomplete.

Committee Failure

According to Mr. Mead, the chairman of the committee had failed to include figures in the report which showed profit, loss, expenditures and overhead for the bookstore. Mr. Mead went on to say that these figures are not obtainable from Mr. Herzog, the University treasurer, until later this month.

Given this information, the council voted to hear the completed report at a future date. They decided, further, that when the findings are acceptable to the council, they will be submitted to the editors of the HATCHET with a request for publication.

The University bookstore has been discussed many times by various groups on campus. The most recent was an editorial in last week's HATCHET against the store's present method of selling used books.

Co-Chairmen
The Council heard the petitions for Career Conference co-chairmen of Al Pope, Alex Heslin, Andrea Brown, William Belford, Charles Landon and Burt Kaplan.

After hearing the petitioners, the Council elected Al Pope co-chairman, adjourned the meeting at 12:30 a.m., and reconvened at 8:00 a.m. Thursday at which time they selected Alex Heslin as the other co-chairman.

Troubadours Sing Oct. 31

• THE TRAVELLING TROUBADOURS will present their annual University concert October 31 at 8:30 p.m. in Lisner auditorium.

The program is part of the Student Council's Colonial series and admission is free.

The program will feature Chuck Johnson, baritone; Ann Mitchell, alto; and William Dotson, tenor, as soloists. Mr. Dotson will sing a medley of three or four numbers. Mr. Dotson and Miss Mitchell are both professional singers.

Group Selections

Among the group selections scheduled are "Break, Oh Beautiful Heavenly Light" by Bach, Thompson's "Alleluiah," "Carol of the Bells" and "Open Thy Heart" by Bizet.

Dr. Robert H. Harmon, associate University physician, is director of the group. He is assisted by John Parker and Harry Gleason. Mrs. Harmon is accompanist; Ginny Botek, assistant accompanist, and Al Justice, manager.

Christmas Trip

Last Christmas the Troubadours made a sixteen-day singing tour trip through areas of Greenland, Canada and Newfoundland, appearing before Air Force groups at Strategic Air Command bases during the holiday season.

Injuries

• A HOST OF INJURIES initiated the opening of intramural touch football last Sunday. The worst injury of the day was sustained by Paul Jenkins of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Playing against Delta Theta Phi Jenkins had to have all his upper teeth removed, two of his bottom teeth and had to have surgery on his upper palate. The accident occurred when Jenkins went up for a pass with Brownie Green of D. T. Phi. The two players collided in midair with both players receiving injuries. Green had a gash running from the side of his face to his scalp. Other injuries were sustained by Bob Price, S.A.E., who tore some cartilage in his leg necessitating an operation; Henry Frain S.A.E., who bruised the bones in his knee; and Ted Alexander, S.A.E., who needed stitches in his lip.

'Guys And Dolls' Pick Lead Roles

by Alice Barker

• THE LEADING ROLES in the Homecoming production of "Guys and Dolls," to be staged November 14 in Lisner Auditorium, will be played by Chuck Johnson, Pat Randall, Vince Mortorano and Sally Herrington.

Try-out results were announced last Thursday night by director Morgan James and producer Ed Ferero.

Mr. Johnson will appear as Sky Masterson, the dashing gambler whose extravagance is legendary in the colorful underworld of Broadway and Times Square in which the play is set. A tenor soloist, Mr. Johnson made his dramatic debut in last season's production of Arthur Miller's "A View From the Bridge," in which he played Rodolpho, the romantic lead.

Singer In Cast

Miss Randall, veteran member of the University's Traveling Troubadours, will appear for the first time with the University Players in the role of Miss Sarah Brown, demure young devotee of the Salvation Army.

Mr. Mortorano also played in the Miller production last spring. He will appear as Nathan Detroit, harassed promoter of a floating crap game.

Transfer Stars

In the role of his sweetheart, Miss Adelaide, will be Miss Herrington, a transfer to the University from Oberlin (Ohio) College. Miss Adelaide, star of the floor show at a neighborhood night club, has been engaged to Detroit for fourteen years.

Supporting Actors

A full cast of supporting characters has been lifted from the picturesque Damon Runyon album of "Guys and Dolls."

Among them are Nicely-Nicely Johnson, to be played by Bill Dotson; Harry the Horse, Don Stoneburner; Rusty Charlie, Rick Orlando; Benny Southstreet, Ron Balin, and Big Jule, Tom Huestes.

Supporting Miss Randall's efforts in behalf of the Salvation Army will be Arvide Abernathy, portrayed by Bill Soule and Gen. Matilda B. Cartwright, Yvonne Lucy. Inevitable complications will be provided by Lt. Brannigan, New York City Police Force, to be played by Richard Runge.

Beating the drums and blowing the horns in the Salvation Army's sidewalk band will be Joan Decker, George Rainforth, Carl Schmid, Shirley Reeder and Dorothy Williams.

Cheerleaders Add 2 Boys

• NEW YELL LEADERS on the University cheering squad are Bob Greenstein and Martin Herman.

Roy Dubrow is alternate to replace one of the yell leaders in case of absence.

Tryouts were held Friday in the gym. Practice will be held every afternoon this week to prepare the two boys for the football game with Richmond Friday. Alan May, a new student from California, will be the coach since he has had experience cheering.

The boys plan to wear white cardigan sweaters with plain white shirts, navy blue trousers and white bucks.

The decision to add men to the squad was left in the hands of the cheerleaders after the Colonial Booster board approved the idea three weeks ago.

After several discussions with Mr. May, a misunderstanding between him and the cheerleaders was settled. He stated earlier that cheerleaders should get more recognition and promote more school spirit.

One boy will stand at each end of the line to encourage cheering from the spectators outside the booster section.

The purpose of the yell leaders is to increase the spirit and enthusiasm of the cheering squad.

Dr. Marvin To Confer Citation, Degrees At Convocation Sat.

• THE 1958 FALL CONVOCATION will be held Saturday, October 18, in Lisner auditorium at 8:00 p.m.

Two University trustees will receive honorary degrees. Judge Walter M. Bastian, Circuit Judge, United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. Mr. Benjamin M. McKelway, editor of The Washington Evening Star, and president of the Associated Press, will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters.

Dr. Cloyd H. Marvin, President of the University, will award a citation posthumously to University alumnus Jose Abad Santos, a Philippine war hero who was executed by the Japanese in May, 1942, because he refused to renounce his allegiance to the United States. When President Quezon left the Philippines in 1942, he left the full responsibility of government in the hands of Mr. Abad Santos, whose subsequent refusal to collaborate with the Japanese led to his execution.

Dr. John Latimer, University Marshal, will lead the academic procession. President Marvin will confer degrees on 357 graduates, in addition to the honorary degrees and the presentation of the citation.

Individuals may petition for themselves or for others they deem qualified. Applications must be completed by the nominee in duplicate.

Recognizes Students

Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities is organized to recognize seniors on college campuses who have contributed to the betterment of their student body and university.

Every participating college or university is allotted a limited number of applicants in proportion to the size of its enrollment.

Selection of students who will represent the University in Who's Who is done by the Student Life committee.

Eleven Judges

The committee is comprised of six students and five faculty members. This year's representatives are Ed Rutsch, president of the Student Council; Dan Kosek, president of the Inter-Fraternity Council; Letty Katz, president of the Panhellenic Council; Tom Varley, business manager of the HATCHET; Betsy Evans, president of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, and Ed Crump, president of Omicron Delta Kappa, men's leadership honorary.

Faculty Leaders

The faculty membership includes Dr. James Coberly, professor of American literature, chairman of the committee; Dr. Don C. Faith, director of men's activities; Miss Virginia R. Kirkbride, director of women's activities; Dr. Carol R. St. Cyr, assistant professor of education, and Dr. Richard W. Stevens, assistant professor of sociology.

Results of the selections will not be announced until December of this year.

'Nuclear Ban' Debates Open

• "RESOLVED: THAT THE further development of nuclear weapons should be prohibited by international agreement" is the National Intercollegiate Debate topic for 1958-59.

University debaters will argue both the affirmative and negative sides of the topic at major intercollegiate meets throughout the school year.

First on the agenda is a discussion conference Friday at the University of Virginia, Practice tournaments for members of the Maryland-Washington Debate conference will be held at the University of Maryland, October 25, and at American university, November 5.

Colonial Program

A highlight of the semester's schedule is the Colonial Program debate against the University of Pittsburgh, November 21, at the University. This debate is open to all University students. A West Point team lost to University debaters last year at the Colonial Program.

The Debate club, formally called the Ensonian Debating society, originated in 1822 when the University was known as the Columbian College. James Monroe, the Marquis de Lafayette and Robert E. Lee have been numbered among its membership.

Membership

Membership in the group is open to any regularly enrolled student with a minimum of nine academic hours and a Q.P.I. of 2.0 or better. Novice debaters are given instruction in formal intercollegiate debate.

Interested students may inquire at the debate office and participate or observe the discussion, a spokesman reported last week.

Squad Meetings

Squad meetings are held Monday through Thursday at 3:00 p.m. in the basement of Lister auditorium. Members are expected to attend two meetings a week. Debate coaches, George F. Henigan and Erwin L. Stevens, associate professor, of speech, work with the debaters.

Approximately twelve tournaments are included in the yearly schedule of the University debaters.

Yell! Yell! Yell!

• THE CHEERLEADERS ARE to be congratulated on their selection of two male yell-leaders. Since the start of the controversy this fall, we think the Cheerleaders, the Student Council and the Booster Board have done a magnificent job in bringing this situation to a speedy and happy ending.

With the new additions to the squad we hope to see a marked improvement in the quality of cheer leading. Unlimited enthusiasm on the part of the Cheerleaders could not help but spread and be reflected by the student body. Perhaps this enthusiasm would be heightened if flash cards with the cheers printed on them were put up on either end of the cheering squad.

Has the Colonial team played well enough to rate this increased call for enthusiasm? We think they have. The team needs to be shown that the student body appreciates their efforts. There is little gratification in doing a job well when it remains unnoticed and unappreciated.

The Cheerleaders could lead the students into expressing their appreciation by showing more response when an injured Colonial player is led off the field or put back into the game.

We think that the new yell-leaders should make it possible for the Cheerleaders to initiate new and different stimuli in order to evoke more response from the cheering sections.

We believe that if the Cheerleaders will consider these points, it should lead to a greater showing of enthusiasm both on the part of the Cheerleaders and the student body.

Colonial Series

• THE TROUBADOURS WILL initiate the Colonial Series with a concert October 31. We hope that this year will show a change in the usual pattern of events—the presence of people.

In past years the Colonial Series has put on excellent plays, concerts, pep rallies, etc., but George Washington students have elected to sit home with a book or go elsewhere instead of viewing these fine performances and efforts by their fellow classmates. As an example the Troubadours are considered a nationally known group; servicemen the world over look forward to their appearance because of their fine quality, yet when the group sings at its home base, Lisner auditorium, they sing to a few lonely souls who seem lost in the auditorium.

This editorial is not so much to scold as to make sure the same thing does not happen this year. Here is a chance to get a little intellectual stimulation, on a higher plane than a pep rally or the All-U follies, but still people do not take advantage of this opportunity. It is irritating to the HATCHET to hear people continually say that George Washington does not provide enough culture in extra-curricular activities, when in reality the University has a wide selection of cultural events if the students would pay a little more attention to what is occurring on their home base. The varied program that the Colonial Series offers should interest all groups of people with any type of taste. The Troubadour's concert, the various dramas, the pep rally for homecoming, the homecoming ball, the dance concert and the Colonial Cruise plus other interesting programs are all presented for the enjoyment of G. W. students, yet the very people for whom these programs are presented are conspicuously missing.

If the student body desires to have other types of programs featured, such as lectures, or any other presentation for that matter, then it is up to the individual to air his or her views before the Student Council and try to do something about it, instead of grumbling and avoiding the support of various other programs. It is not a very effective demand if all one does is sit in a chair and make suggestions. We think the Colonial Series is a pretty good thing. If there is a way to improve it, the Editors of the HATCHET, and most other students are all for it.

Let's break the monotony of books, classes and parties by ushering in a year of wholesome participation in the Colonial Series programs, led off by the Troubadour's concert on October 31.

Jazz II

Grant Offers Jazz In D. C.

by Mike Duberstein

• MANY A JAZZ fan is baffled by the sparseness of jazz radio programming.

One person seems to have found a solution though. He is WMAL's Felix Grant. For nearly five years, Grant has conducted a week night show featuring only what he terms "contemporary sounds." In fact, the show has proved to be so great a success that WMAL has set jazz programming as strict station policy.

The road to the present show was long and rocky. Grant came to the area just after World War II and took a disc jockey position with station WWDC—emceeing the all night show. He then moved to WMAL and was given the opportunity to have his own show. As originally planned, the program would feature after-dinner and popular music with no jazz. For the first few weeks, the show followed that pattern. Then Grant began to intermix jazz with the pops, the jazz format was set. There it has remained until the present.

However, Grant is still not satisfied with the present arrangement. He explains it this way:

"The music I play is a sort of happy medium—not too much progressive and not too much traditional. Mainly it consists of the big bands, such as Count Basie and Ted Heath, and singers, like Frank Sinatra and Mel Tormé.

"But, if I wanted to, I could put the show off the air in one week. All I would have to do would be to play a lot of the 'way-out' variety—you know—Thelonius Monk and John Coltrane.

"But don't get me wrong—I like it—but most of the listeners

Messiah Tryouts

• THE FIRST "MESSIAH Chorus" rehearsal will be held Thursday, October 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the Dinwiddie room of Lisner auditorium. Those who were unable to attend tryouts as originally scheduled may try-out at the Thursday rehearsal.

wouldn't know what we were playing."

Besides the radio show, Grant is co-producer of Washington's only local television jazz program. "Jazz Recital" is shown over WMAL-TV Saturday nights at 8:00 p.m. and features the Charley Byrd Trio, along with set-ins such as J. J. Johnson, Buck Hill and Bobby Felder. Grant spent over two years in convincing station officials of the possibilities of such a program before it was put in on Sunday nights and dubbed "Nightcap." The show proved to be such a hit that it was moved to a more convenient time-slot and renamed, but the format remains the same.

One interesting sidenote to the show is that each show features at least one classical selection by Mr. Byrd in addition to the jazz.

Another of Grant's enterprises is the series of "Sunday Jazz Recitals" given once a month in the main ballroom of the Sheraton-Park Hotel. At the last performance, over 1800 persons crowded the room to hear the Modern Jazz Quartet, the Mose Allison Trio and the Charley Byrd Sextet.

The next concert is October 25 and headlines the George Shearing Quintet plus the big band of England's Ted Heath.

For over twenty years the name Benny Goodman has been a household word, not only to the jazz advocate but also to the world. Therefore it was fitting for Goodman to be invited to perform at the Brussels World's Fair in behalf of the United States. Two long-play albums were recorded by the Goodman band at the Fair. One, Columbia's "Benny in Brussels," has not been released.

The other is out and it is a gem. Using part of Goodman's tapes, the Westinghouse Corporation has put out a special record, "Benny Goodman Plays World Favorites in High Fidelity," and is available only through Westinghouse dealers.

Queen Morna Gives Time, Talent To G.W.

by Mary Alice Mayers

• DR. FAITH IS director of men's activities, but must also be a pretty accurate judge of women. Browsing through his office, you note that his secretaries seem to have three similar attributes—beauty, brains and talent. When you come to Morna Campbell's desk, you find a young lady who particularly exemplifies all three.

Morna was born in New Orleans, Louisiana but can be deemed a Washingtonian since she has lived here for twelve years. She graduated from Western High School here in Washington and came to G. W. in September 1955 as a sociology major. Morna has interspersed her talents in every field as her activities include everything from scholastic honoraries to winning beauty contests. She began her scholastic career in 1956 by being elected to Tassels, sophomore scholastic honorary.

She then went on to serve as a member and later chairman of Flying Sponsors, an organization that serves as an entertainment and publicity function for the ROTC. It was through this that she was chosen ROTC Queen for the Military Ball in 1957. Her list of queenships do not end there for she reigned as Homecoming Queen that same year.

G. W.'s football team on to victory.

In addition to all these activities, she has served behind the scenes too, as co-chairman for the 1956 Homecoming Show. She helped orientate new co-eds by being a Big Sis—the organization's Vice President in 1957 and President in 1958.

MORNA CAMPBELL

With all of these diversions Morna still found time to study and was tapped for Mortor Board, senior women's scholastic honorary, the most coveted women's scholastic award and was also tapped as a member of Delphi, Senior women's service honorary. Morna is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma social sorority of which she has served as pledge trainer and scholastic chairman.

Morna has not yet decided what she will do after graduation but would like to travel either to South America or go to New York. Morna has a "darling little apartment" with another K. K. G., Jan Powers who wants to go to Europe or San Francisco so Morna guesses they will both eventually compromise and end up in Canada.

$500 Book Review Contest Open To All Upperclassmen

• PROFESSOR GEORGE WILLIAMS of The Rice Institute, Texas, has written a critical commentary on higher education in America; "Some Of My Best Friends Are Professors," published October 24th.

In this book Dr. Williams makes a penetrating appraisal of our institutions of higher learning... and teaching, and has coordinated his own provocative findings with other collegiate studies, resulting in some highly provocative judgments.

Concerned with the failures and failings in the American university today, and convinced that these stem from the ineptitude, timidity and inadequacy of too many professors, Dr. Williams describes, in solemn censure and concern for America's youngsters, these seven types of the "bad professor."

The opposite characteristics, says Dr. Williams, will provide a clue to at least 7 qualities possessed by the "good" professor! But an insight into the bad professor is not simply an occasion for guffaws, but rather does it give America a chance to re-evaluate its system of higher education.

As a method of uncovering undergraduate opinions on the views held by the author of this book, the publishers are sponsoring a contest open to all upper classmen (freshmen, though welcome to read this book, are ineligible because of their insufficient time experience in college); inviting an appraisal of "Some Of My Best Friends Are Professors."

Contest Details

There will be a prize of $500 given for the best essay; all manuscripts to be no fewer than 3,000 words and no more than 10,000 words; manuscripts are to be received in the publisher's office by February 1, 1959; the prize-winner will be announced on March 15, 1959.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

By Hester Heale

BLAST! MY LAST dollar went on Milwaukee last week. I've reserved a spot in front of Monroe Hall for this week where I can stand and ask for dimes, nickels, pennies, whatever.

Twenty-four pledges! I don't believe it. All anyone can say is, "Congratulations, Deltas." Now the thing to do is to let Jim Hill set up a dating agency for the GW crew, even a Lonely Hearts club for a few of us. But, by the way, can anyone (possibly the Deltas) tell us what happened to that super-dooper rush map, Jeff Rankin?

This past Friday night featured a Louis Prima party at the Pi Kappa Alpha house, with several of the brothers and their dates enjoying some real cool jazz, man. On Saturday, the party-goers were entertained by the distinguished acting of Lou Hoelman and Al Galeani. Ed Rutach came through with a few choice stories, of course. Among the many present were Steve Judge and KKG Becky Hanzl, Harry Quinn and Pi Phi Bobby O'Neill, John Beaver and DG Rosina Orr, Bernie

Passeltiner and KKG Kathy Blackburn, Ted Collins and Chi O Carolyn Tucker, and many, many others. (There I kept a promise, and trust that, once more, I am in good stead with the Pikes.)

Rollieking and slumbering at the TEP Nocturnal Party this past Saturday night were such notables as Mike "Miguel" Bellet and Debbie Parzow, Myron Gessner and Enid Zimmerman, Dr. Bertman and Marlene Himmel-farb, Stan (the thin man) Burns and his heart throb, Ellen Wexler. During the course of the evening, Stan Orliński presided over the buffoonery and an attempt at a TEP original performance of "The Pajama Game" by Ellie (Sweetheart) Katz, Elaine Michaelson, and Debbie Parzow added to the conviviality. Food was served and when the "G" street frat houses received word, they converged en masse on the TEP house, devouring the bagels and lox and kidnapping the Teps' pajama-clad dates.

Exchanges, exchanges! Hula-hooping seems to have taken this campus by storm. Hula-hoop tournaments prevailed at the Phi Sig-Chi O and the Delta-Kappa exchanges during the week. Carolyn Tucker, Joni Phelps, and Marty Hurd were champs at the Phi Sig house, while Carol Itchner and Park Avery claimed the victors' laurels at the Delta Shelter. (What would everyone think about a GW hula-hoop tournament? Hmmm—let's have a few pros and cons.) Amid the savage splendor of the Hawaiian natives, the DGs and SAEs initiated their exchange seasons, while the scarred and bruised Siggy Nus entertained the Thetas at an exchange after the game with the Sigma Chis.

A "casual" party inhabited the Sigma Chi House Saturday night. Thanks to Bill Ellis (The Music Man), the dance floor was so crowded that the wood-paneled shoo and knocked down the pictures of the past Sweethearts of Sigma Chi. A handful of the group included Al Baker and Anne Kellogg, Lin DeVicchio and KKG Carol Briggs, Wann Gays and Helen Dunbar, Wright Horne and AEPH Joan Goldstein, Tom Huestis and Dotty Williams and Chuck and Mary McSwain. A post mortem to the Sigma Chi pledges' congratulatory cake of last week: a "you're welcome" card arrived at the Sig House, Monday morning. It read: "You're welcome, gents. We frosted the chocolate ourselves. Now you are regular fellows, since you used gentle EX-LAX."—Signed by Gail Rogers and Dotty Williams—those devils!

Saturday night was a big night at the Phi Sig House with a huge dinner, followed by a party. Jeff Weckler turned out to be the loser in "Indian Signs," and of course suffered the consequences—why not!! Some of the merry-makers were Lou Van Blois and Chi O Ginger Thomas, Han Swope and ADPI Jerianne Parlin, Alan May and ADPI Jane Keston, and John Prokop with Chi O Rose Cordray.

And in this sudden recurrence of 85-degree temperature, the Phi Sigs (finally) announce the pinning of Han Swope (who managed to hold it off, temporarily) and ADPI Jerianne Parlin. Furthermore, the Kappas announce the pinning of one of their pledges (already!!), Sue McCandless, to Midshipman David Cutcomb.

The Sigma Nu House was in a continental mood at the "Wine Tasting Party," Saturday. Sigma Nus and dates swapping Sonata for Kijafa and Manishevit (is that how it's spelled?) in the niches were Ken Callaway and Carole Thome, Bill and Marcey Belford Jack "The Bearded One"

Lynn and KAT Bunny Johannessen, Tom McGratand KAT Ann Connealy, Pat Brown and Mary Stratos, Ed Gross and Nicky Fink, Dwight Jackson and Pi Phi pledge Betty Warner, Al Kopf and Rosemary Kaputo, Steve Kemp and Mary Gallagher, Jim Whitney and Nan Myers and Dick Wills and Judy Holzberg.

Paging Welling Hall! Rumor has it that the residents of our elegant men's dorm... have been wondering who the two new girls are across H Street in Madison Hall. We hear that our "currently winning" athletes spotted them through binoculars during the big "Pow Wow" last week. But after an accurate check by "Seedie," we understand that no new girls have been admitted to Madison Hall.

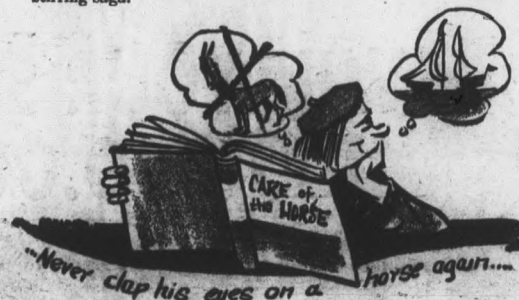

Next week, gang!

SAIL ON, SAIL ON!

I suppose October 12 is just another day to you. You get up in the ordinary way and do all the ordinary things you ordinarily do. You have your breakfast, you walk your ocelot, you go to classes, you write home for money, you burn the dean in effigy, you watch Disneyland, and you go to bed. And do you give one little thought to the fact that October 12 is Columbus Day? No, you do not.

Nobody thinks about Columbus these days. Let us, therefore, pause for a moment and retell his ever-glorious, endlessly stirring saga.

Christopher Columbus was born in Genoa on August 25, 1451. His father, Ralph T. Columbus, was in the three-minute auto wash game. His mother, Eleanor (Swiftly) Columbus, was a sprinter. Christopher was an only child, except for his four brothers and eight sisters. With his father busy all day at the auto wash and his mother constantly away at track meets, young Columbus was left pretty much to his own devices. However, the lad did not sulk or brood. He was an avid reader and spent all his waking hours immersed in a book. Unfortunately, there was only one book in Genoa at the time—Care of the Horse by Aristotle—and after several years of reading Care of the Horse, Columbus grew restless. So when rumor reached him that there was another book in Barcelona, off he ran as fast as his fat little legs would carry him.

The rumor, alas, proved false. The only book in Barcelona was Cuidar un Caballo by Aristotle, which proved to be nothing more than a Spanish translation of Care of the Horse.

Bitterly disappointed, Columbus began to dream of going to India where, according to legend, there were thousands of books. But the only way to go to India was on horseback, and after so many years of reading Care of the Horse, Columbus never wanted to clap eyes on a horse again. Then a new thought struck him: perhaps it was possible to get to India by sea!

Fired with his revolutionary new idea, Columbus raced to the court of Ferdinand and Isabella on his little fat legs (Columbus was plagued with little fat legs all his life) and pleaded his case with such fervor that the rulers were persuaded.

On October 12, 1492, Columbus set foot on the New World. The following year he returned to Spain with a cargo of wonders never before seen in Europe—spices and metals and plants and flowers and—most wondrous of all—tobacco! Oh, what a sensation tobacco caused in Europe! The filter had long since been invented (by Aristotle, curiously enough) but nobody knew what to do with it. Now Columbus, the Great Discoverer, made still another great discovery: he took a filter, put tobacco in front of it, and invented the world's first filter cigarette!

Through the centuries filters have been steadily improved and so has tobacco, until today we have achieved the ultimate in the filter cigarette—Marlboro, of course! Oh, what a piece of work is Marlboro! Great tobacco, great filter, great smoke! And so, good friends, when next you enjoy a fine Marlboro Cigarette, give a thought to the plucky Genoese, Christopher Columbus, whose vision and perseverance made the whole lovely thing possible.

And thank Columbus too for Philip Morris Cigarettes, for those who want the best in non-filter smoking. Philip Morris joins Marlboro in bringing you these columns throughout the school year.

Businessmen View Dances

• LAST TUESDAY evening the University dance production groups performed at the Columbia Country club for a Babcock and Wilcox International conference.

The theme for the evening was "Americana—A Trip Through the United States via its Folk Dance Arts."

It was presented to the group of international businessmen and their wives not only to entertain, but also to give those from other countries an insight into U. S. folk customs, a group spokesman said.

Folk Dances

Many visitors from abroad are familiar with the "boogie-woogie" and "Charleston," but American folk and square dances are in many ways more popular and more truly characteristic of much in America's background, dance production group members maintained.

Group director, Miss Elizabeth Burner, wrote the script and acted as commentator for the presentation.

The tour in dance began with the fifth figure of the Oriental dancers, a stately quadrille of French origin, popular in the United States until the advent of the jazz age. It is one of the parents of the present day square dance.

Other Areas

Also visited in dance were the far west, the southern Appalachian mountain region, New England and Washington, D. C.

Calling was done by Maurice Flowers. Dancers with the group were Marcia Barrett, Dick Bushey, Joan Ramage, Dick Lykes, Mimi Sildell, Arthur Bowman, Jane Finney and Mike Taylor.

Also Kathy Maier, John Arguelles, Edith Revetta, T. Sullivan, Connie Smith and Peter Brardt.

The purpose of the W.A.A. is to provide a well rounded sports program for girls in order to promote physical and mental fitness. Through competition in such sports as badminton, basketball, rifle, volleyball and bowling girls develop leadership, self-reliance and a sense of fair play.

G. W. girls are given an opportunity to compete with girls from A.U., Goucher, Hood, Marjorie Webster, and Galludet on the Sports Days which are held under the auspices of the W.A.A. The girls compete in bowling, badminton and basketball. Highlight of the W.A.A. sports year is the annual Tri-angular meets at which Buffites compete with two area schools. Last year G. W. topped Goucher but was edged out by Hood in overall competition, although the Colonial girls beat Hood in bowling.

Sports Banquet

The W.A.A. is active in all phases of women's sports at G. W. The W.A.A. sponsors a Sports Banquet in the fall and spring at which girls who have accumulated points for participation in the various sports are presented with awards of keys, letters, charms and cups. Intramural Football Starts; Moonlighters, DTPhi Win

• THE MOONLIGHTERS, the perennial powerhouse of the intramural gridiron opened the football season by swamping TEP 25-6.

George Bickerton spearheaded the independent's attack as he took the opening kickoff and charged 60 yards for the Moonlighter's first tally. Bickerton again displayed his running prowess by sprinting 40 yards around his own left end for another TD.

The Moonlighters made it 19-0 when Bob Dilweg threw a 30-yard pass to Charley Sanford in the second quarter.

Dave Koutras scored the final tally for the independents on a desperate grab of Dilweg's 15-yard pass. Koutras also scored the Moonlighter's extra point which came after the second touchdown.

TEP scored their lone touchdown in the second half on a 50-yard pass play.

Delta Theta Phi edged out SAE 3-0. The score came in the final five minutes of the game when Tom Smegle booted a 23-yard field goal to give the lawyers their victory.

Smegle's field goal climaxed a 70-yard drive from the lawyer's own 5-yard line. DTPhi smashed their way to the SAE 1-yard line. But the tough SAE forward line threw DTPhi back to the 13 in three plays.

PIKE nosed out Phi Sigma Kappa 7-0 in one of the hardest fought games of the day. Steve Dietz led PIKE's powerful offense in the second quarter on a 75-yard march.

After taking possession of the ball on their own 4-yard line, the PIKE's launched their attack behind the passing of Al Snider and the powerful running of Steve Dietz. After a 40-yard pass play from Snider to John Beaver put them on the Phi Sig's 15-yard line, Steve Dietz raced around his left end for the rally. Dietz also scored the extra point with another end run.

Delta-Tau Delta stopped a last minute AEPi tally to win their opening game 13-6.

AEPi almost tied the score in the last minute of the game, but the Delt's fine pass defense squelched the rally. The AEPi's had moved the ball from their own twenty to the Delt 15 with the aid of 20-yard pass interference penalty against the Delt's. When AEPi quarterback Rick Silas attempted another pass, Delt safetyman Henry Mayo raced the field to intercept the pass and insure the Delt victory.

Jerry Cornelius spearheaded the Delt attack by scoring one TD himself and passing for the second.

AEPi scored in the first quarter on an intercepted pass. AEPi halfback Sid Hersh snagged a Cornelius aerial and raced 50 yards to put AEPi on the scoreboard.

Other scores are: A league—Sigma Chi 19, Sigma Nu 0; TKE over Phi Alpha Delta on first downs, 3-2; Theta Tau over SPE on first downs, 6-4. B league—PIKA 7, Acadia 0; Med. School 7, Engineering School 0.

Buff Plays Spiders At Griffith Stadium

by Stanley Heckman

• THE COLONIALS WILL take on the Richmond Spiders Friday night at 8:00 p.m. at Griffith Stadium.

G. W. will be trying for its second Southern Conference victory on Friday. In their only Conference game thus far, the Buff eleven defeated Furman 11-8. The Colonials will also be seeking to improve their 1-1 record, the loss coming in the opening game against Detroit.

Richmond has not shown much strength this season. Coach Edwin Joel Merrick has had quite a problem replacing departed quarterback, Jim Hoffman. Despite the benefit of 17 returning lettermen, Coach Merrick has done a great deal of reorganizing and experimenting to build a satisfactory offense.

Thus far the Spider's "new look" has not paid off. In their opening game the Spiders were trounced by West Virginia, 66-22. Following this, Richmond lost to Dayton, 13-12; VMI, 12-6, and Rutgers, 23-12.

Last Saturday against Rutgers, the Richmond squad managed to hold their own for the first half.

Taking advantage of three Rutgers fumbles, the Spiders took a 6-0 lead at the half. In the second half the Rutgers Scarlet razzledazzled their way through the spotty Richmond defense. With Scarlet star halfback Bill Austin sparking the team, Rutgers scored the first three times it got the ball.

Throughout the game the Spiders ran from a variety of formations, including its Indian-file "T" formation. Halfback Art D'Arrigo starred for the Spiders with a 44-yard run to set up one of the two Richmond touchdowns.

If the Colonials continue the fine playing which they exhibited in their first two games, Buff should have another victory cheer about. With a two week lay-off, the Buff should be more than ready to chalk up their second Southern Conference victory.
